

The Collaborative Law Institute of Illinois presents

BASIC INTERDISCIPLINARY COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE TRAINING

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24 –
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 2019

CHICAGO MARRIOTT
540 N. MICHIGAN AVE. CHICAGO, IL 60611

Are you interested in helping families resolve their differences peacefully rather than battling as adversaries in the courtroom? Divorce doesn't have to be destructive. The Collaborative divorce process enables couples to approach divorce in a non-adversarial manner, through agreements tailored to family priorities and alternatives to fighting in court.

Join us for this informative and interactive training and discover the roles of the attorneys, mental health coaches, and financial neutrals as they form a Collaborative team to support clients in the Collaborative divorce process.

Over two days, our trainers will demonstrate a Collaborative case from beginning to end and explore the skills needed to be a Collaborative divorce practitioner.

Experienced and knowledgeable CLII Fellows serve as trainers. All have been thoroughly trained to instruct in Collaborative Practice and all have extensive professional experience in the Collaborative specific to Illinois.
